January minutes were approved as submitted.

Treasurer's Report: Bettye Nelson advised that of the 2010 budget of $2,225.00, $100 went to the Alliance Foundation as an honorarium for the January program and $122.50 was spent for supplies, leaving a balance of $2102.50.

OLD BUSINESS

Art Committee report: Karen Kovaly created the quilt on display.

January program: Despite inclement weather, the Building of the Sloop Adventure was well attended and received enthusiastically.

The February encore presentation of Al Long's interpretation of George Burns was kicked off with an announcement flyer to the community, to be followed by a reservation flyer that will go into each resident's paper box. Rick will respond with a confirmation notice to those received and will establish a wait list. The bar will be open to attendees only.

Richard Folsom's discussion of his research of local Indian culture is on target for March 14th.

On April 25th, the Beaufort County Traditional Music Association will bring their ensemble to CL. They currently perform at the Artisan's Center in Washington.

NEW BUSINESS

The Bay Club art inventory has been completed by Holly Cook who reports that everything is in place and that several additional pieces were found and she has identified these in her report for the HOA.

Future Program Ideas include:

Marvin Daugherty, WITN weatherman, who will be scheduled in May

Butterfly program which Mary Lavin is coordinating for June 14th

Advanced Care Planning/End of Life issues is in progress for Sept or Oct, details to be later presented by Sue Rella.

The CL Artisan Show will be held in November.

Community interest for participation in the Christmas program will be explored.

Other ideas discussed include as a speaker Ross Hamory of DWOW, Arlene Orofino of Chocowinity EMS services, a pottery exhibit/discussion (Seagrove or Finch or a local potter), Sylvan waterfowl as an outing.

Respectfully submitted,
Sue Rella, recording secretary
